Policies

All policies can be found in your student handbook at your school.

Plagiarism will not be allowed. If your work is found online, you will be given a zero on that homework with the chance to redo the assignment correctly, I will email your e-mentor, and if plagiarism continues then I will require you to submit your assignments on paperrater.com (only for those who repeat plagiarizing)

Journals

These are NOT viewed by anyone but you and I.

These are free-writing activities. They are not intended to be lengthy...set a timer and write for 5-10 minutes...no more. The ONLY RULE is that you must continue to write (or type) for the whole time! Don't "think"...just write (or type)! As you do more, it will get easier.

Each of these is worth 10 points...basically a completion grade. I will not look at spelling or grammar. I will not look at anything other than if you have 5-10 minutes' worth of writing down. (i.e. it must be more than a couple sentences).
